The Greeter

I want to be a greeter, when God calls me home,
Where every Sabbath evening, God welcomes us to his throne.
I want to stand at the pearly gates, where we all enter in,
Greeting God's children, in a world without end.
To welcome each child of God to his heavenly home,
From many worlds they come, all the worlds they roam.
As I greet those who enter the gates, I'll know each by name,
From many galaxies they enter in, no two are the same.
Beautiful white robes of righteousness, each with starry crowns,
All to meet with Jesus, and never see a frown.
When the Sabbath is over, they depart for worlds afar,
I'll be at the pearly gates, I'll be a shining star.
I look forward to the future, but for now I'll do my best,
To greet God's children here, till I'm laid to my rest.
