FROM THE LIBRARY:

God has blessed us with several members in our church and community who have published books or have recorded CDs. It is our pleasure to focus on them from week to week at our Library: A Service for the Lord

Focus on author Ann Burke

Ann Burke, long time resident of Yucaipa and member of Beaumont and Yucaipa SDA Churches, has captivated readers with her beautiful poetry and great books. She writes:

"The first stories I ever heard were those my mother told me. They were Bible stories, largely. The first poetry I remember came in the form of song. Like other stories, song moved me from the beginning. Efforts to string words together myself would follow. I have my parents to thank for my college major in English and my husband, Ken, for encouraging my writing projects. Most of my verse and reflections went to Adventist publications. During a correspondence course, "Writing for Children and Teenagers," I began my first book, "Light the Lantern, Daughter," published in 1986 by Review & Herald. It is the story of my mother's girlhood. In 2006 the first edition of "To the Last Drop of Our Blood: A Story of Government and Religion," TEACH Services, Inc., followed. In this second book, the experience of the Waldenses illustrates the perils of a united church and state.

The gifts we have should be used. It is God who gives them; it is He who makes the doing possible. Praise Him"

Focus on authors Joyce and Kenneth Hopp

Joyce Hopp, Ph.D. and Kenneth Hopp, J.D. (deceased) authored several books during the years of their membership in the Yucaipa Church. Both had their books translated and reprinted by the Adventist press in Hamburg, Germany. Kenneth Hopp's books, A Christian Lawyer Looks at the Judgment (1984) and Christianity Makes Sense (1983), were written as a reflection of his experience in studying to become a Seventh-day Adventist. Joyce Hopp began writing for Adventist publications during her employment at the GC Health Ministries (1954-1962), and continued as a professor in Loma Linda University's School of Public Health since 1967. Along with serving on the Science-Health Textbook Committee, authoring HIV-AIDS teaching guides, and Health Education Materials for the Ukraine, Joyce has published two books: It Takes a Church (2002), encouraging the adult church to take purposeful interest in the lives of the children and youth of the church, and Babies in Her Saddlebags (1986), the story of the nurse/midwives of the Frontier Nursing Service. Be sure to read the entire biography printed in the July Yucaipa Church Newsletter.
